“What Parents & Teens Need to Know”

DATING ABUSE

Thursday, October 28, 7:00 p.m.
Glendale Central Library Auditorium
222 E. Harvard St., Glendale
(free parking in structure @ Harvard & Maryland)

Presented by
Barrie Levy, MSW
UCLA Departments of Social Welfare & Women's Studies

Please join the Glendale Commission on the Status of Women and the Glendale Unified School District to learn more about teen dating violence, and what you can do if someone you know needs help.

The presentation will be followed by a Q&A with representatives from various organizations, including: Glendale Police Department, LA County Bar Association Domestic Violence Project, and the Glendale YWCA.

This event is free and open to the public. Please call (818) 548-4844 for more information.
